SUBJECT: CRITICAL INCIDENT REPORT

This is to inform you of a report of a sexual assault involving clients residing in Southern California Alcohol and Drug Program's (SCADP) program site at 11501 Dolan Street, Downey, California 90241. This program site is contracted to provide residential treatment services to clients enrolled in the Substance Abuse Prevention and Control's (SAPC) Parolee Services Network (PSN), General Relief, General Program Services, and AB109 treatment programs. The program is located in the Fourth Supervisorial District.

SCADP staff reported an alleged sexual assault involving clients to SAPC on October 12, 2013. According to SCADP, the alleged crime was immediately reported to Downey police, who conducted an investigation. The alleged perpetrator, also a SCADP client, was subsequently arrested.

SCADP has taken steps to assist the client, who was the victim of the assault with psychological evaluation, treatment and support services.

SAPC will conduct a follow-up visit to ensure that SCADP has taken the necessary steps to ensure client safety. If you have any questions or need additional information, please let me know.
